Capture the raw strength and captivating honesty of salty seashores with this coastal-inspired wall lantern. Clear seeded glass panes rest in a non-metallic, corrosion-resistant composite polymer with a rich black finish. An x-brace design adorns each side of the frame and adds an extra pinch of rustic character. DURASHIELD by Progress Lighting is built to last. Constructed from a composite material with UV protection, DURASHIELD holds up even in the harshest weather conditions. This high-performance finish has a 5-year warranty and is resistant to rust, corrosion, and fading.
